

LARRY CHERUBINO

2008 AD LIB TREE HUGGER CHARDONNAY

“I opened a bottle of the Ad Lib “Tree Hugger” No Oak Chardonnay 2008, from the Pemberton region of Western Australia. Winemaker is Larry Cherubino — “Little Angel” — one of the best winemakers in Australia today...Anyway, while the whimsical label and the motto on the back — ‘No trees were harmed in the making of this wine’ — are attractive, the wine in the bottle is even more compelling. The color is pale straw; aromas of roasted lemon and lemon balm, ginger and spice waft from the glass. The wine radiates purity and intensity, offering amazing body, density and character while maintaining a crystalline edge of vibrant acidity and a resonant mineral element that rivals the White Cliffs of Dover. The finish hints at white flowers and orange zest. A beautiful chardonnay. Excellent...a Great Value.”

-FREDRIC KOEPEL, BiggerThanYourHead.net

OFFERED BY VINTAGE
NEW WORLD

