LARRY CHERUBINO AD HOC
MOUNT BARKER WALLFLOWER
RIESLING 2010

95 points, $18, Screwcap, 11.5% alc
Neither the striking label design nor the flowery, blossom-accented bouquet give warning of the exceptionally intense and long palate that follows, lime and lemon juice drawing saliva from the mouth, and lingering into the finish and aftertaste.

SEVENHILL CELLARS INIGO CLARE
VALLEY RIESLING 2010

96 points, $19, Screwcap, 12.5% alc
This beautiful, estate-grown riesling has a startlingly fragrant bouquet, perfumed and flowery. The palate comes as no disappointment, with lilting citrus and passionfruit flavours and a long finish. Sometimes this level of fruit expression has a degree of reduction, but this wine is as fresh as a spring day.
